

PUBLIC NOTICE

CONTRACT TERMINATION GOVAN MBEKI ROAD, GUGULETHU

The City of Cape Town regrets to inform residents and road users that the current construction contract for infrastructure upgrades along Govan Mbeki Road in Gugulethu has been terminated.

The City has taken this step following an in-depth review of the contractor's performance. A replacement tender will be advertised in the coming months in line with the City's procurement processes.

What this means

- All construction activities linked to this contract have ceased.
- A new tender process is underway and a new contractor will be appointed upon its completion.
- The City will inform the public as soon as construction is ready to resume.

Important information for affected workers

Any contract workers who were part of this contract and believe they have not been remunerated are advised to contact:

- The Department of Employment and Labour, or
- The Building Industry Bargaining Council (BIBC)

These bodies are best placed to assist with labour-related queries and claims.

The City acknowledges the impact of this interruption and appreciates the patience of affected communities.
